

Free Home Phone Service.

Call anywhere in the U.S.
with no monthly fees.

Talk is officially cheap. Costly home phone service has gone the way of the telegram.

Ooma lets you make free¹ U.S. local and long distance calls over the Internet. Just plug your high-speed Internet connection and normal home phone into Ooma, and you're ready to call anywhere in the U.S. with no monthly fees. And unlike other VOIP systems, there's no need for a PC or a headset—just use your phone like you normally would.

Setup

Easy as 1, 2, 3...

1. Plug your high-speed Internet connection into Ooma Telo

2. Plug your home phone into Ooma Telo

3. Call your phone company and tell them to stop sending you bills[†]

The Gettin' Is Good

And you thought making free calls was enough. Our features are dialed in.

- Free unlimited U.S. calls with no monthly fees or contracts.
- Caller-ID, call-waiting, and 911²; oh my!
- International calls starting at pennies per minute.
- Secure encrypted phone calls with outstanding voice quality.
- Get a spanking new phone number in any calling area in the U.S., or transfer your existing number to Ooma for a one-time fee.

It pays to go with Ooma

Buy our system. And buck the system.

When you buy the Ooma Telo, U.S. calls won't cost you a dime, and international calling is incredibly cheap. There are taxes, regulatory fees and costs of $11.75* per year. We'll pay your first year, but after that it's up to you.

OPTIONAL Ooma Telo handset costs: $49.99

OPTIONAL Ooma Premier service: $119.99/year or $9.99/month

¹Free U.S. Calling offer does not include broadband Internet service and certain other taxes and charges. A fee for regulatory recovery and other costs of $11.75 per year applies in the second year and beyond and is subject to change.

²Ooma 911 service operates differently from traditional 911. See <http://www.ooma.com/911/> for details. High-speed Internet or broadband required. Alarms and other systems may not be compatible. Additional terms and restrictions apply, see <http://www.ooma.com/termsandconditions/>. Transfer of your existing phone number, available in most areas, requires a one-time processing fee, and may take up to four weeks to complete. Ooma Premier and other enhanced features carry a monthly service fee. Use of the Instant Second Line requires the installation of an Ooma Telo Handset (sold separately). International calls billed per minute and paid by user. Directory assistance (411) calls billed per call. Offer subject to reasonable residential usage limitations.

FAQs

Can I transfer my old home phone number?

But of course. There is a one-time transfer fee of $39.99, or it's free with a one-year subscription to Ooma Premier. Ooma works with your phone company and takes care of the number transfer for you.

What about 911 service?

We've got you covered. Ooma offers enhanced 911 service, which automatically transmits your registered service address to public safety officials answering emergency calls.

How is the voice quality using Ooma?

In a word, superb. Ooma is designed to offer the voice quality of a landline, and it uses only a small, reserved portion of your Internet bandwidth to ensure that the quality of your calls is not affected by other traffic to or from the Internet.

Does the person on the other end have to own an Ooma?

No. Ooma allows you to call anyone with a U.S. phone number, free of charge. And international calls are incredibly cheap.

Is it free at first and then later you hit me with monthly fees?

Not a chance. With Ooma, there are never any monthly fees for calling in the U.S. But we do hope you'll try out Ooma Premier, our optional bundle of advanced calling features—there are small fees for this but they are completely optional.

International calls cost next to nada, nichts, niente.³

You can't put a price on friendship, but if you could, it would be incredibly cheap. That's because now you can keep in touch with your friends and family—virtually anywhere in the world—for next to nothing. So get ready to talk to your heart's content, and your wallet's. For added savings, check the Ooma website for International Calling Bundles.⁴

Ooma Premier

Go full-throttle with Ooma Premier.

Get your hands on a bundle of enhanced calling features designed to make your home phone service fire on all cylinders. Every Ooma system comes with a free 60-day trial. Here's just a sampling of our highly evolved phone features. See the Ooma website for the full list of Premier features.

Instant Second Line™

If there's a phone hog in your life, it's no longer a problem. With Ooma's Instant Second Line, all you have to do is go to another Ooma Telo Handset in the house, pick it up, and you've got a fresh Ooma dial tone. Plus, you can make or take a second call without missing a beat.

Voicemail screening

If you're not in the chatting mood, you can listen to your caller's voicemail through the speakers on your Ooma device. You can also have your voicemail forwarded to your email and listen to messages on your mobile device or computer.

Personal and Community Blacklist

Put the kibosh on unwanted callers with Personal Blacklist, which blocks certain callers or sends them directly to voicemail. And give the Heisman to solicitors and insidious spammers with Community Blacklist.

Free number transfer or handset

Sign up for a year of Ooma Premier ($119.99/year) and choose either a free* Ooma Telo handset ($49.99 value) or we'll transfer your number for free ($39.99 value). Limited Time Offer. Subject to change.

*Telo handset shipping cost not included.
